Education is a weapon, whose effect depends on who holds it in his hands and at whom it is aimed.

--Joseph Stalin

Education's purpose is to replace an empty mind with an open one.

--Malcolm S. Forbes

The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet.

--Aristotle

Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire.

--William Butler Yeats

The whole drift of my education goes to persuade me that the world of our present consciousness is only one out of many worlds of consciousness that exist.

--William James

The secret of education is respecting the pupil.

--Ralph Waldo Emerson

The primary purpose of a liberal education is to make one's mind a pleasant place in which to spend one's leisure.

--Sydney J. Harris

The one real object of education is to have a man in the condition of continually asking questions.

--Bishop Mandell Creighton

The object of education is to prepare the young to educate themselves throughout their lives.

--Robert Maynard Hutchins

The education of a man is never completed until he dies.

--Robert E. Lee

The best educated human being is the one who understands most about the life in which he is placed.

--Helen Keller

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not.

--Thomas Henry Huxley

My idea of education is to unsettle the minds of the young and inflame their intellects.

--Robert Maynard Hutchins

Most people are mirrors, reflecting the moods and emotions of the times; few are windows, bringing light to bear on the dark corners where troubles fester. The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows.

--Sydney J. Harris

If you think education is expensive, try ignorance.

--Derek Bok
